

Making the European Union work - Issues for Economic Governance Reform

---

Institute for World Economics
1014 Budapest, Országház u. 30, Jacobine room

---

Working language: English

Tuesday, April 12, 2011

11:00 hrs	Welcome Prof. Dr. András Inotai Director, Institute for World Economics, Hungarian Academy of Sciences, Budapest
11:10 hrs	EU financial governance: half way, half finished György Gordon Bajnai Founder, Haza és Haladás Közpolitikai Alapítvány (Patriotism and Progress Public Policy Foundation); former Prime Minister of Hungary, Budapest
11:30 hrs	Introduction Joachim Fritz-Vannahme Director, Programme "The Future of Europe", Bertelsmann Stiftung, Gütersloh  Presentation of the Report "Making the European Union work" – round table discussion Chair: Peter Balazs Professor, Director, Center for European Enlargement Studies, Central European University, Budapest, former EU-Commissioner and minister of foreign affairs of Hungary  Dr. Jens Bastian Senior Economic Research Fellow for South East Europe, ELIAMEP, Athens; SEESOX/Alpha Bank Visiting Fellow on the Political Economy of South East Europe, St. Antony's College, Oxford Prof. Dr. Iain Begg Professorial Research Fellow, European Institute, London School of Economics, London Prof. Dr. András Inotai Director, Institute for World Economics, Hungarian Academy of Sciences, Budapest
12:30 hrs	Questions & answers
13:30 hrs	Luncheon