

Institute for World Economics of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences
1014. Országház u. 30. Budapest

Hungarian-Bulgarian Workshop
Crisis after Crisis. Domestic and international responses
21st October

9.00 Opening of the workshop
András Inotai, Rossitsa Rangelova

Europe, Bulgaria and Hungary

9.15-9.30: András Inotai: Experiences with the Hungarian EU Presidency
9.30-9.45 Rossitsa Rangelova: Current-account and economic growth during the 2008-2009 crisis (empirical analysis).
9.45-10.00: Miklós Somai: Latitude for CEE member states to develop within the EU-budget available for them after 2013
10.00-10.30: Questions, remarks

10.30-10.45 Coffee break

Corporate developments. Crisis and non-crisis related trends

10.45-11.00: Miklós Szanyi: Relocations in the electronics sector: the case of Hungary
11.00-11.15: Plamen D. Tchipev: National corporate governance code, as an anti-crisis tool
11.15-11.30: Andrea Szalavetz: Crisis and functional upgrading at MNCs' local subsidiaries in Hungary
11.30-11.45: Radka Ileva: Problems of the Bulgarian firms competitiveness during the current crisis time – paper presented by Plamen Chipev
11.45-12.30: Questions, remarks
(Coffee will be available through the session)

12.45-13.45 Lunch

Sectoral issues with short and long term relevance

13.45-14.00: Grigor Sariiski. Crisis and the Eurozone. Where is the Way out?
14.00-14.15: Gábor Tury: International firms' responses to crisis impacts: The case of car industry
14.15-14.30: Dragomir Belchev: Bulgarian pension system: Problems and challenges in the context of aging population
14.30-14.45: Iskra Christova-Balkanska: Changes in the financing of real sector and related impacts of the banking sector

14.45-15.00: Questions, remarks

15.00-15.15: Coffee break

Migration and the Far Eastern factor in Central Europe

15.15-15.30: Ágnes Szunomár: Chinese-Central European relations: The case of Hungary
15.30-15.45: Vesselin Minchev: The crisis impact on the migration processes in Bulgaria. Paper presented by Iskra Christova-Balkanska
16.00-16.30: Questions, remarks

16.30 Final remarks, conclusion, network building

18.30 Dinner at „Horgásztanya” restaurant