

„Russia between two worlds”
Achievements, failures of 20 years and prospects
international workshop

April, 7, 2011. - Thursday

2.00. p.m.      Welcome by András Inotai, director,
Prof. Mihály Simai, Academician, head of the research group.

2:15 p.m.

I. panel – Russia in the changing world

Oleg. T. Bogomolov (Academician, Institute of Economics, RAS, Russia) –

Crisis of neoliberalism. What next? Russia's case

Mihály Simai (Academician, Institute for World Economics, HAS, Hungary) –

Russia in the global system of the 21th century

Vasily Simchera (Sc.D, Professor of Economics, Head of Statistics Division, Customs Union of the Eurasian Economic Community, Russia) –

The imaginary and real trends in Russia's economic development

Discussion

3:40 p.m.      Coffee break

3:55 p.m.- 5:30 p.m.

II. panel – Russian industrial policy with focus on energy sector

Péter Farkas (senior research fellow, Institute for World Economics, HAS, Hungary) –
Manufacturing industry and economic policy in Russia.

Vasily Astrov (economist, The Vienna Institute for International Economic Studies, Austria) –

The current state and prospects of the Russian energy sector

Csaba Weiner (research fellow, Institute for World Economics, HAS, Hungary) –
Russia in the transforming world energy economy

Discussion

April 8, 2011 - Friday

10:00-12:00 a.m.

III. panel – Foreign economic relations of Russia

Zsuzsa Ludvig (senior research fellow, Institute for World Economics, HAS, Hungary)–

General features and prospects of Russian foreign trade

Volodymyr Sidenko (professor, corresponding member of NASU, Institute for Economy and Forecasting, NASU, Ukraine) –

The Customs Union and Common Economic Space of Belarus, Kazakhstan and Russia as a new reality for the European Union and its Eastern partners.

Csaba Weiner (research fellow, Institute for World Economics, HAS, Hungary) –

Russia and foreign direct investment patterns

11:15 a.m.- 11:30          Coffee break

Zsuzsa Ludvig (research fellow, Institute for World Economics, HAS, Hungary) –

Hungarian – Russian trade relations in international comparison

Dmitry Markov (head of Trade Representation of the Russian Federation in Hungary, Russia) –

Current state of Hungarian-Russian economic relations

Discussion

12:10. a.m. 1.00 p.m.

IV. Closing panel – Suggestions to the summarising paper of the project and general discussion on prospects of the Russian economy

1.00 p.m.                      Closing remarks – Prof. Mihály Simai, Academician, head of the research group.