

Institute for World Economics
of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences

Proceedings of the 5th Hungarian–Romanian
Bilateral Round Table
Budapest, December 3-4, 2004

Globalization, European Integration and Economic Transformation

Edited by

Gábor Fóti and Tamás Novák

Budapest
2005

Contents

Foreword	5
Reflections on the European Union’s Opening Process to the Regional and Global Scale Marcel Moldoveanu	7
Towards the New Europe: Some Reflections About the Consequences of “Eastern” Enlargement(s) András Inotai	11
Le Paysage Monétaire a l’horizon des Annees, 2025–2030 Eugen Andreescu	26
The Euro and the New Member States Simona Moagar-Poladian	32
The Hungarian Manufacturing Sector: Achievements, Deficiencies and Challenges Ahead in the Light of Its Production Factors Andrea Szalavetz	42
Reinventing Industrial Policy in a World of Globalization Sarmiza Pencea	49
Hungarian Agriculture and the EU Miklós Somai	66
The Romanian Agri-food Trade 1998–2003: a Top-ten Analysis Camelia Serbanescu, Daniela Giurca, Mirela Rusali	83
Foreign Direct Investment in a New Framework Gábor Túry	108
The National and Regional Impact of the Roşia Montana Project Ştefan Răgălie	119
External Trade Competitiveness of Hungary Gábor Lakatos	129
Comparative Analysis of the Foreign Trade and Investment Policies in Romania and Hungary in the Accession Process to the European Union Mariana Nicolae	138